

Setting the context and current best practice – New Zealand and overseas

8.30am – 9.00am Pōwhiri

- Welcome
- Taranaki Iwi

9.00am – 9.20am Keynote opening address

Rt Hon Jacinda Ardern, Prime Minister

9.20am – 9.35am Rangatahi perspective

- Youth vision for Taranaki and Aotearoa
- Rt Hon Jacinda Ardern, Prime Minister
 - Josh Barratt, Opunake High School
 - Ethan Sheaf-Morrison, New Plymouth Boys High School
 - Nikita Taiapa, New Plymouth Girls High School
 - India Logan-Riley, Te Ara Whatu

9.35am – 10.05am Keynote address – James Cameron and Suzy Amis Cameron

A global perspective on the importance of taking action on climate change and how New Zealand can showcase leadership that captures the opportunities

10:05am – 10:30am Paramanawa – morning tea

10.30am – 11.15am Taranaki 2050 roadmap

- The Taranaki Region will present their draft roadmap and outline the process to develop it
- Grant McQuoid, Director, Velocite
 - Waid Crockett, CEO, South Taranaki District Council
 - Gus Charteris, General Manager, Just Transition Unit, Ministry of Business Innovation and Employment
 - Justine Gilliland, CEO, Venture Taranaki
 - Joanna Breare, CEO, Todd Energy
 - Jen Natoli, Team Lead, E tū
 - Glen Bennett, Community representative
 - Wharehoka Wano, CEO, Taranaki Iwi

11.15am – 12.10pm Lessons from international leaders

- Setting the context. The whole world is facing these issues, our speakers discuss examples of what other nations are doing
- Samantha Smith, Director, Just Transition Centre
 - Franz-Josef Wodopia, Managing Director, Coal Importers Association
 - Jay Weatherill, Former South Australian Premier
 - Alan Thomson, Global Energy Systems Leader, Arup

12.10pm – 12.55pm How does this relate to Aotearoa New Zealand

- What is Aotearoa New Zealand already doing? What changes are needed? What are the opportunities?
- Kevin Hague, Chief Executive, Forest and Bird
 - Sam Huggard, Secretary, NZCTU
 - Robert Spurway, Chief Operating Officer – Global Operations, Fonterra
 - Liana Poutu, Chair, Te Atiawa

12.55pm – 1.45pm Tina – lunch

Setting the context and current best practice – New Zealand and overseas

1.45pm – 2.15pm

Lessons from the Pacific

Case studies from two Pacific Islands that are already experiencing the impact of climate change

- Hon Fiame Naomi Mata’afa, Deputy Prime Minister, Samoa
- Hon Henry Puna, Prime Minister, Cook Islands

2.15pm – 3.00pm

Changing the model

How businesses are changing their business models to meet sustainability challenges – and what it means for their shareholders

- Peter Bryant, Managing Partner, Clareo
- Leon Clement, CEO, Synlait
- Wayne Thompson, Deputy CEO, Ports of Auckland
- Lisa Tumahai, Kaiwhakahaere of Ngāi Tahu

3.00pm – 3.25pm

Paramanawa – afternoon tea

3.25pm – 4.10pm

Navigating the future of work

How companies can support their employees and communities in the transition. What does good practice look like?

- Hon Grant Robertson, Minister of Finance
- Kirk Hope, Chief Executive, Business New Zealand
- Christopher Luxon, CEO, Air New Zealand
- Richard Wagstaff, President, NZCTU
- Tony Maher, National President CFMEU

4.10pm – 4.25pm

Whakakapi korero

Day one wrap up

- Hon Dr Megan Woods, Minister of Energy and Resources and Minister of Research, Science and Innovation

7pm – 10.30pm

Summit dinner

- Peter Garrett, Dinner speaker
 - Mihirangi, Dinner entertainment
-

How new theory/policy development is creating opportunities

8.40am – 9.00am Kupu whakatau – welcome

Neil Holdom, Chair, Taranaki Mayoral Forum

9.00am – 9.40am Economics for the 21st century

How climate change issues are changing the way economists view the world

- Kate Raworth, Economist and Author of Doughnut Economics
-

9.40am – 10.25am Navigating the new environment

Understanding Aotearoa New Zealand's emerging landscape – exploring the new policy context for the transition

- Hon James Shaw, Minister for Climate Change
 - David Binnie, General Manager Supply and Distribution, Z Energy
 - Eddie Christian, Group Manager, Market Engagement, EECA
-

10:25am – 10:50am Paramanawa – morning tea

10.50am – 11.10am Using technology for good – together

How can we use technology in more innovative and collaborative ways to enable transition to a low emissions economy?

- Russell Craig, National Technology Officer, Microsoft
-

11.10am – 11.55am Investing in change

How to navigate the new investment requirements, including repurposing and raising capital

- Charles Ehrhart, Director Sustainable Value, KPMG
 - David Hall, Senior Researcher at the Policy Observatory, AUT
 - Cecilia Tarrant, Establishment Chair, Green Investment Finance
-

11.55am – 12.15pm Learning to fly – sustainable benefit from international innovation

A case study of Cora, an autonomous, electric, air taxi, challenging global transportation from New Zealand

- Anna Kominik, Country Director, Zephyr Airworks
-

12.15pm – 1.05pm Tina – lunch

1.05pm – 2.05pm Embracing change – energy

How the energy sector has embraced community and iwi engagement for new developments and projects

- John Hancock, Director, Signature Consulting
 - Topia Rameka, CEO, Tūwharetoa Maori Trust
 - William Meek, CFO, Mercury Energy
 - James Kilty, Chief Generation and Development Officer, Contact Energy
 - Tracey Hickman, Executive General Manager Generation and Wholesale, Genesis
-

2.05pm – 3.00pm Changing land use and the future of food

Navigating a new environment which is challenging how to farm and produce food

- Hon Damien O'Connor, Minister of Agriculture
 - Tim Morris, Director, Coriolis
 - Steve Carden, CEO, Pāmu
 - Leonie Matoe, Business Development Manager, Kaitahi
-

How new theory/policy development is creating opportunities

-
- 3.00pm – 3.50pm Emerging opportunities – hydrogen
Focus on new technology and how it is being developed in Aotearoa New Zealand
- Hon Dr Megan Woods, Minister of Energy and Resources and Minister of Research, Science and Innovation
 - Patrick Cnubben, New Energy Coalition, The Netherlands
 - Andrew Clennett, Co-Founder and CEO, Hiringa
 - Linda Wright, CEO, NZ Hydrogen Association
 - Mark Pickup, Principal Policy Advisor, Energy Markets, Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment
-
- 3:50pm – 4.05pm Whakakapi korero
Day two wrap up
- Hon Dr Megan Woods, Minister of Energy and Resources and Minister of Research, Science and Innovation
-
- 4:05pm – 4.15pm Korero whakamutunga
Farewell
- Taranaki Iwi
-
- 4:15pm – 4:45pm Paramanawa – afternoon tea